Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

EXTRACT from the MINUTES of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Province of Pennsylvania, January 14, 1766.

To the Honourable the KNIGHTS, CITIZENS and BURGESSES of Great-Britain, in Parliament assembled,

The PETITION of the REPRESENTATIVES of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met.

Most humbly sheweth,

THAT taking into their most serious Consideration the Statute passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, prohibiting the further Emissions of Bills of Credit from being lawful Tender in the Colonies, and attentively weighing the Mischiefs which must attend the Continuance of the said Statute, the Obstructions to the Growth and Increase of this young and lately flourishing Colony, and the Diminution of its commercial Intercourse with Great-Britain, which it must necessarily occasion; we find ourselves under the unhappy Necessity of making our Application to your Honourable House, for a Repeal of the said Law.

That it is known, from the most evident Experience, that the Growth and Increase of this Province has been, in a great Measure, occasioned by the moderate Sums of Paper Money which, from time to time, have been emitted by, and under, the Direction of its Legislative Authority;---that before these Emissions were made, the Progress of the Colony, in its Wealth and Settlement, laboured under the greatest Difficulties, and proceeded in its Course by Degrees almost imperceptible, the Inhabitants being under a Necessity, from the Want of a Medium of Commerce, to negotiate a great Part of their Business and Traffick in the inconvenient Mode of Barter and Commutation; but that upon striking the first Bills of Credit, this disadvantageous Method of Commerce was soon laid aside, Contracts multiplied, personal and real Estates rose to their proper Value, our Numbers increased, Trade became extended, and the Settlement of the Country proceeded with more Rapidity than the most sanguine Expectations could suggest; and that the same happy and fortunate Effects have ever flowed from the further Emissions of Paper Bills of Credit, in Proportion to the Sums emitted, without the least Inconveniency or Prejudice to the Merchants of Great-Britain, or the People of this Province.

That we apprehend no Arguments can be necessary to prove, that Commerce cannot be carried on to any beneficial Extent, without a proper Medium of circulating Cash, destitute of which, the Trade of this Colony must, in a short Time, be confined to the restricted Limits of Barter among ourselves, and the commercial Intercourse with Great-Britain be greatly diminished, to the manifest Loss of the Mother Country, and Impoverishment of the Colony.

That the Trade to the foreign Ports, from whence our Merchants formerly imported Gold and Silver, in Part of their Returns, is effectually obstructed, by the high Duties imposed on the Produce of those Ports, to the great Detriment of our Commerce with Britain; and even when those Duties shall be taken off, the Gold and Silver imported, will be remitted in Discharge of the Debts to the Mother Country; and therefore, that we can have no permanent Medium of Commerce, without the Liberty of emitting such reasonable Quantities of Paper Bills of Credit as may be necessary for that Purpose.

That by the Policy of the English Laws, the Person of every Debtor remains as a Security to his Creditor for the Performance of the Contract, and Discharge of the Debt: And should the Legislature of this Province be restrained from making Paper Money a lawful Tender to the Creditor, in Discharge of the Body of the Debtor, the Person of every American is liable to Duress and Imprisonment, at the Will and Pleasure of his Creditor.

Moved by the sincerest Desire of promoting and increasing the Commerce of our Mother Country, as well as that of our particular Province, we beg Leave further to represent, that upon this Liberty of instituting a proper Medium of Trade, the future Importations of British Manufactures, in a great Measure, depend; that we find, from incontestible Vouchers and Experience, that at all Times the Importations from Great-Britain have increased or diminished, in Proportion to the Quantity of this Medium, and the foreign Gold and Silver current; that in the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty, when the largest Sums of Bills of Credit, and foreign Species, were circulating, the greatest Quantity of English Merchandize was imported, that has ever been known, either before or since that Period; that before this Time, as the Quantity of this Medium was increased, by the Demands of the Crown, the Orders of the Pennsylvania Merchants grew larger, and the Importations from Britain also increased; that since this Period those Importations have lessened, in Proportion to the Sinking of those Bills of Credit, and the Exportation of our Gold and Silver to Great-Britain, and that in so great a Degree, as to be extremely injurious to the mutual Commerce between our Mother Country and this Colony,

That in the said Year the Bills of Credit of this Province amounted to more than Five Hundred Thousand Pounds, which, by sinking a Part annually, is now reduced to about Two Hundred and Ninety-three Thousand; that a great Part of the Bills now current, are subserving the Purposes of Commerce in the Colonies of New-Jersey and Maryland, being received by them, from a full Conviction of the Solidity of the Funds upon which they are established; that the commercial Interest of the last mentioned Colony must have been greatly distressed without them, having had, for some Years past, no sufficient Medium of Trade of her own; that before the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-three, all the Bills of Credit now current, are directed to be sunk and destroyed, by the Laws which emitted them, and, with the greatest Concern and Uneasiness we assert it, we have Reason to fear our Commerce with our Mother Country will languish and expire with them.

That the Funds for calling in and sinking these Bills of Credit have ever been formed on the best Security, the real and personal Estates of all the People in the Province being subject to a Tax for the Sinking of them; the Quantity emitted from time to time has ever been so moderate, as to be scarcely sufficient to answer the Purposes of Trade, and the Settlement of the Country, even when aided by large Importations of foreign Gold and Silver; the Merchants of Great-Britain have never been injured by their Emission, but, on the contrary, have been greatly benefited and enriched, as it enabled our Merchants to enlarge their Importations, and to pay their Debts with Honour and Punctuality, until their late Distress, occasioned by the Restrictions of their foreign Trade, remitting our Gold and Silver to England, and the present Diminution of the Quantity of the said Bills of Credit.

That the unhappy Effects of this Diminution of our Paper Currency are already most sensibly felt; the Price of all Kinds of Labour is lessened, the Numbers of our Poor are increased, the Value of our Estates greatly sunk, our Trade and Importations from Britain evidently decreased, the further Settlement of the Province is obstructed, and the People reduced to the greatest Distress.

Wherefore, your Petitioners, deeply affected with a View of the present and impending Calamities, which threaten His Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the good People of this Province, most ardently intreat your Honourable House, that you will be pleased to take the Subject of their Aggrievances into your serious and candid Consideration, and grant them that Relief which must arise from a Repeal of the said Statute, and the Liberty thereby afforded the Legislatures of this Province of emitting Bills of Credit, as lawful Tender in all our Colony Debts, from time to time, as the Purposes of Commerce, the Settlement of the Colony, and the Necessities of the Government, shall reasonably require.

Signed, by Order of the House,
Jan. 14, 1766. JOSEPH FOX, Speaker.

Swedesborough, August 1, 1766.

THE Incorporation of the Swede Evangelical Lutheran Church, on both Sides of Raccoon-creek, in Gloucester County, West New-Jersey, take this Method to inform the Public, that they intend to lay out and settle a Town, near Raccoon Church and Bridge, upon their Church Premises, for the Welfare of the said Church, and promoting of the Gospel of JESUS CHRIST; which Town, in and by their Royal Charter, lately obtained from the Governor and Council, is to be called Swedesborough. And whereas the Situation of this Place seems to be very encouraging for several Kinds of Trade and Tradesmen, relating to Country Produce and Business, being favoured with a free and open Avenue, and convenient Carriage to Philadelphia both by Land and Water; by Water in Shallops, and by Land in the Market-waggons going up twice a Week, being only 18 Miles from Gloucester Point; hence the Settlers can have their several Businesses very conveniently transacted at Philadelphia, either Way, and also be provided twice a Week with all suitable Kinds of Provision before their Doors, at the current Market Price. For the proper executing this good intended Purpose, the said Corporation will immediately proceed to issue out Leases for such Lots and Spots of Ground (at a fixed and very moderate Ground-rent) as the Lessees and they can agree upon. There is at present a good Prospect for a Tanner, Blacksmith, Taylor, Joiner, Mason, Sadler, Hatter, &c. For further Information, enquire of the Reverend Mr. JOHN WICKSELL, Rector of the said Incorporation, on the Spot; or of THOMAS DENNY, Esq; residing in the Neighbourhood. ¶

To be SOLD, clear of Quit-Rent, for ever, at Two Shillings and Six-pence per Acre, Proc.

A Tract of valuable Land in the Branch of the River Delaware, about fifty Miles to the Northward of upper Minisink, in the Province of New-York; the Tract contains Ten Thousand and Thirty acres, it is bounded on two Rivers, the one Delaware, the other called Popaghton, a large Quantity of low Land on each River, &c. there is a large Brook, and two smaller, runs through it, very convenient for Mills, of any Sort, as Delaware is navigable to the aforesaid Tract, &c. Any thinking Person must allow that the Price is very low. Whoever has a mind to purchase, may apply to JAMES PARKER, in Beaver-street, New-York. The Patent is near Sixty Years old; a good Title will be given; the Owners imagine it will suit the Pennsylvanians best, as they have a better Idea of the River Delaware, than they have at New-York. If one Person should think the Tract too large, it might suit a small Number very well.

WHEREAS it appears, from an Advertisement in the Pennsylvania Gazette, of the 24th Instant, a Reward of Three Pounds is offered, for committing to Goal one Patrick Doyle, who ran away from Messer Brown, of East Nottingham, Chester County; These are to notify the said Messer Brown, or whom else it may concern, that the said Patrick Doyle was this Day, by a Warrant for that Purpose, committed to the Goal of this City, under the Name of John M'Lauchlan, but soon afterwards, upon searching for, and discovering an Indenture of Transportation, under the Hand of the Lord Mayor of Dublin, confessed himself to be the Man advertised. His Master is therefore desired to come and pay the above Reward, with the other Charges, and take said Servant away.

To be LETT,

A VERY convenient House, in Second-street, opposite the Baptist Meeting; with a large Store back, Stable, and Coach House. Enquire of THOMAS LAWRENCE, in Water-street, or of Mr. ALEXANDER HUSTON.

WHEREAS I have seen a Reply to my Advertisement, by William Hawxhurst, signifying that I had, with perhaps more Art than Truth, made some Objections to his Anchors, &c. To that I answer, if he, or any other Person, desires to know the Truth of what I have said, by applying to me I can make it appear, that a Piece of Iron, three or four Inches square or round, is raw in the Middle, and not of that pure Quality of small Bars. Here he begs Leave to answer, that although such of his Anchors as are of about 200 Weight are made from the Loop, yet he is persuaded, that every judicious Person must determine them to be as sound and as strong, as if wrought from two, three or four small Bars, welded together; altho' those he makes of a larger Size, which will appear to be made in the same Manner, he doth not say are equally as good, but, from his own Words, the smaller the Iron is drawn, it is the better; and again he saith, Iron thus prepared in the Loop, may as well be made into large Shanks, as the Flukes of Anchors; but if I understand him right, he makes his large Arms or Flukes from the Loop so prepared, which should be made of as good Iron as the Shanks. And as he appeals to the Public for a more satisfactory Voucher, I answer for myself, that it is difficult to mend those Anchors, made of Iron so prepared from the Loop, as I have had many Trials of them, and some of those he calls super-excellent, or at least made by his ten Years experienced Foreman. And as to his saying he has no Design to injure me in my Business, is a Contradiction in itself, when he sends his Anchors here, and advertises One Halfpenny in the Pound lower than I, or any other Person, can or will sell for. Also, in order to put a further Stop to my making any more, at a Price I can live by, and do Justice to the Public, the more effectually to compleat his Design, sends here, as I am informed, to get the Models of all my Anchors, from One Hundred to Thirteen Hundred Weight; for that Purpose, a Person in the Neighbourhood where I live, was applied to, to get Scantling, and spare no Cost, for, as he said, Offley's Anchors sold much better than his did. But this is not all; my Foreman told me, upon my coming into the Shop, that there had been a Man at the Door, viewing the Anchors; and after Enquiry found it was said Hawxhurst, who made it his Business to enquire of my Foreman what Wages I gave him, and upon knowing, he told him if he would come to New-York he would give him more Wages than I did. If this was not a Design to injure me, I must confess I do not know what an Injury in Trade or Business is. And by his acquiring those Things abovementioned, may it not be supposed that it would be the only Way to monopolize all this Branch of Business into his own Hands, and then raise his Price upon the Public? that I leave for them to judge; and whether his Foreman has had ten or fifteen Years Experience in the Business, as I have had, the Work itself will prove that. And as he thinks others may be led by Principles of Justice as well as I, I agree, and believe if he had been dictated by those Principles, Do unto all Men, as ye would they should do unto you, he would not have endeavoured to deprive me of my Hands and Business, &c. but when it affects him but little, to what it would have done me, if he had succeeded, let every judicious Person judge; and seeing he has such a large Extent to send his Anchors to, the Goodness and Super-excellency of them appears by his own Account, perhaps, in such Places as neither Old England, New-England or Philadelphia Anchors are to be had.---And as to his giving his Correspondents here Orders to replace them, in case of Failure, it gives me Pleasure; but if his Anchors be super-excellent, as he saith, then let him stamp his Name on them, that it may be known who the Maker was, in case of Failure, that the Owner may know where to apply for a new One. More might be said, but least I weary the Public, I leave it to their Judgment, and conclude,

DANIEL OFFLEY.

Head of Elk, Cecil County, Maryland, July 24, 1766.

MADE his Escape last Night from Way's Tavern, at the Sign of the Waggon, on the Road leading from Philadelphia to Lancaster, an Irish Servant Man, named Charles Farran, a thick well-set Fellow, about 20 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, has a Down-look, a little Knock-kneed, wears his own black Hair, cut on the Top of his Head, a great Snuffer, and very quarrelsome: Had on, when he made his Escape, an old Felt Hat, a light coloured Country Cloth lappelled Jacket, much worn, lined with Tow Linen, and small flat white Metal Buttons, a Country Linen Shirt, Tow Trowsers, old Calf-skin Shoes, with Copper Buckles. He was ironed with Handcuffs, which it is probable he may get off, as it is thought he has Confederates. He was lately taken out of Reading Goal, and it is thought will make towards the Back-Country. Whoever takes up and secures said Servant in any Goal, shall have Forty Shillings, and if brought home Four Pounds Reward, paid by

RUN away from the Subscriber, at Mount Clement, between East and West-Jersey, on Monday last, a likely Negroe Man, named Prince, about 5 Feet 10 Inches high; had on a white Waistcoat, without Sleeves, Ozenbrigs Shirt and Trowsers, and a sharp cocked Hat. He talks good English, is Country born, remarkably black, and a little pitted with the Small-pox. Whoever takes up and secures said Negroe, so that his Master may have him again, shall receive Thirty Shillings Reward, and all reasonable Charges, paid by me THOMAS PLUMSTED. ¶

From a London Paper of the 17th of May, via Maryland, we have the following Advices, viz.

M A D R I D, April 22.

WE learn from Barcelona, that papers had been posted up there, setting forth that a revolt would take place the 20th instant, at three o'clock in the afternoon, unless the price of certain commodities were lowered. Tho' the Marquis de la Mina, Captain-General of the King's armies, and of the principality of Catalonia, was persuaded that this menace had no real foundation, he thought proper to take every necessary step to prevent this pretended sedition, and punish the authors of it.

Paris, May 12. On the 6th of this month the Parliament passed the following arret concerning the Count de Lally.

The Court, the Great Chamber being assembled, declares Thomas Arthur de Lally duly attainted and convicted of having betrayed the interest of the King, his Country, and the India Company; of abuse of authority, vexations, and exactions towards the King's subjects, as well as foreigners, dwelling at Pondicherry; for reparation whereof, and on account of other circumstances resulting from the process, he is deprived of his estates, honours, and dignities, and is condemned to be beheaded by the executioner, on a scaffold to be erected for that purpose at the Greve; and all his personal effects are confiscated to the King, the sum of ten thousand livres being first applied to the purchase of bread for the prisoners in the Conciergerie, and three hundred thousand livres to be distributed among the poor inhabitants at Pondicherry, at the King's discretion.

The arret was executed on the 9th.

Versailles, May 7. The Prince de Bauffremont Listenois, Lieutenant General of the Navy, took his leave of the King the 4th instant, being going to Toulon, to take the command of the squadron which is fitting out there.

Hanover, May 2. Yesterday the Count de Malzahn, lately appointed Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia to the Court of Great-Britain, arrived here from Berlin, in his way to to London.

May 17. We hear that on Wednesday last his Grace the Duke of Grafton resigned his place of Secretary of State.

The City of Ratisbon rendered homage to the Emperor on the 28th of last month; and that of Francfort was soon to do the same, conformable to the rescripts issued by his Imperial Majesty for that purpose; and this will be successively followed by all the other Cities in the Empire.

A Gentleman, who came from Calais last Sunday evening, informs us, that M. Lally was detected by his keeper, last Friday, endeavouring to destroy or stab himself with a pair of compasses, upon which he was ordered to be executed immediately, which was accordingly done by decollation.

A letter from Dunkirk, dated May 10, says, "The minute Mrs. Ogilvie arrived at this place, she set out in a post-chaise for Berges, a town two leagues from hence, and there employed the Mistress of the Auberge to buy her several articles necessary to the apparel of a woman. There she staid some days, and behaved with much humility, and good breeding. To what part of the world she is now gone, is not known. The servant that attended her to Gravesend and Dover, did not come over with her. The servant she now travels with is a Frenchman. She had a letter of recommendation to a Scotchman, now living at Dunkirk, who conducted her himself to Berges."

By accounts from Cape Coast Castle, the principal fort of the English, on the Gold Coast of Guinea, we are informed, that the Factory were in a very healthy and good condition, had plenty of provisions, and lived in perfect harmony and good terms with the natives; that the forts belonging to the settlement had undergone a thorough repair, with several new additional works, under the direction of Governor Multer, who had employed these two years past about 200 men on them; that after several bickerings and disputes between the English, French and Dutch, about erecting a fort at the entrance on the Gold Coast, the English had prevailed, and erected one at Appelonia, which would be of the greatest service to the trade. It is added, that the Dutch and Portuguese are become extremely jealous of the many French traders that have appeared these few years on the coast, and are very watchful of their motions, as they are very complaisant to the natives, and distribute their French spirits among them with great profusion.

Admiral Durell will set out in a day or two for Portsmouth, to take the command of the fleet for protecting the Newfoundland fishery.

It is said, that a proposal has been made to obtain a pardon for Mr. Wilkes, with a view of his pleading it the first day of next term, in bar of the sentence of King's Bench.

On Wednesday died, aged near 80, at her house in Bull-court, St. Giles's, Margaret Cassody, who had acquired upwards of 1600 l. by keeping of two-penny lodging houses.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Egmont kissed his Majesty's hand on being appointed Secretary of State, in the room of his Grace the Duke of Grafton, who has resigned.

The Honourable House of Commons have adjourned to Thursday next, when they will meet again for the further dispatch of business.

We hear that the bill to restrain the issuing of any warrant for seizing of papers, except in cases of high treason, or felony without benefit of clergy, has passed an august assembly.

It is talked, that the duties on cotton wool imported, will be discontinued; and that an additional duty of three shillings per piece will be laid on all French cambricks and lawns, exported to the Plantations.

There is also a report, that an additional duty of six-pence per gallon will be laid on all single brandies or spirits imported, and also an additional duty of one shilling per gallon on all double brandies, or spirits imported; and that a duty of six-pence per gallon will be taken off all rums imported from the Plantations.

Letters from the Lower Elbe, dated April 25, say, that all the pains the Empress of Russia has taken to people the Banks of the Volga, has not answered her intentions. The Foreigners, who were inticed thither by the fine promises that were made to them, are perishing with fatigue and wretchedness; they are abandoned to the discretion of the Chiefs, are hated and feared by the People of the country, and destitute of protection against both; so that the borders of the Volga, which they looked upon as the Land of Promise, is likely to be the Grave of these unhappy people.

Yesterday the Court of Common Council, at Guild-Hall, gave a benefaction of 400 l. to the sufferers by the fire at Montreal.

And it was recommended by the Court to the Magistracy of this City, not to grant any licence for holding any publick assembly, or assembly house, which may have a tendency to corrupt the morals of the youth of this City.

In a tragedy lately rejected at one of our playhouses, there were no less than three rapes, four murders, a forgery, and an incest.

They write from Genoa, that an advice boat had just arrived with intelligence, that the malecontents of Corsica had been obliged to raise the siege of St. Bonifacio, on the approach of the French troops, which had given General Mattra an opportunity of relieving the garrison with a reinforcement of 300 men, and a large supply of provisions.

They write from Minorca, that several English officers and seamen have been engaged there, to enter into the naval service of his Sardinian Majesty.

We are informed there will be no occasion for keeping up an English fleet in the East-Indies.

CHOICE BOHEA TEA, to be sold by WILLING and MORRIS, in Philadelphia.

By Captain Benson, arrived at New-York, in seven Weeks and three Days from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

N A P L E S, April 26.

THE eruption of Mount Vesuvius was very violent the 12th, 13th, and 14th instant, and the lava has run over some cultivated grounds; it abated the 18th, but still kept running gently, and the beginning of this week it emitted a great quantity of cinders, which spread over some cultivated lands, and burnt the flowers, fruit-trees, and other productions.

On the 17th instant, three Barbary Pirates, that were cruising upon the coast of the Pope's dominions, landed 402 men at Nettuno, near the mouth of the Tiber, and carried off a Priest, and three or four Peasants; the rest of the inhabitants ran away upon their approach.

Muskau, in the upper Lusatia, April 14. Besides the misfortune which happened here, and was related the 2d instant, these farther particulars are given of it; of 136 buildings none are left standing; both the churches were burnt, as were the council-chamber, and the two public schools, with all the furniture. In the years 1634, and 1682, this town was likewise burnt down.----The damage done by this misfortune amounts at least to 160,000 rixdollars.

Madrid, April 22. The King has sent orders to the Marquis d'Ensenada to retire from court. Yesterday two regiments of horse arrived here with 8 pieces of cannon, and near 10,000 troops are on guard round this capital; notwithstanding which, libels of a most atrocious nature are daily dispersed and posted up. Every corner resounds with threats of riots and insurrections. The populace have even attempted to set fire to the castle of the Duke of Arcos, in the neighbourhood of Alicant, and to raise a disturbance in the Palace of St. Ildefonso. Two officers, on their return from Carthagena, whither they had been to escort the Marquis de Squilace, found the people every where in commotion, and crying out, long live the King! Destruction to Squilace!

Civita Vecchia, April 30. According to some letters from Corsica, an exchange of prisoners of war have been made there; but Paoli and his Senate have expressed so much aversion to the Genoese, and even to the French, who lately hanged a taylor and a shoemaker at Ajaccio, that Peace seems to be banished from that unfortunate island. The crime laid to the charge of the poor taylor and shoemaker was, that they publickly cried out in the midst of its garrison, "long live our country, and Paoli, its protector."

Genoa, May 3. According to our last advices from Spain, the spirit of mutiny circulates yet in the several towns of that kingdom; and it was believed this was the reason that the Queen's regiment, which was to embark at Cadiz for America, had received counter-orders.

A vessel is arrived here from Bastia, the commander of which reports, that a French tartane had brought from Toulon an hundred cannoneers and matrosses, whom the Marquis de Marbeuf had distributed into the several places held by the French in Corsica. From this circumstance it is apprehended that much blood will be shed soon in that isle.

Ferraio, May 10. The letters received at Venice from the Levant, continue to assure, that Prince Heraclius made himself master of the city of Trebisonde, on the 9th of March last, after a siege of seven days; that his army, which increased daily, and was abundantly provided with every thing, had set itself afterwards in march for Amasia; that it was actually arrived in the province of that name, which borders to the north on the Black Sea; that the Porte having neither been able to foresee or prevent this blow, had sent the most speedy orders to Smyrna, to dispatch from thence, without delay, some gallies, with troops and ammunition, for securing the places on the coasts of Natolia, whither a numerous body of Janissaries had been marched, together with a large train of heavy artillery; that on the other side, the Beglier-Bey, of Natolia, had also set himself in march, with a considerable corps, for Nicomedia, in order to endeavour, as much as possible, to shut up the Georgians, or at least to check their progress.

Hamburgh, May 23. A letter from Gottenbourg observes, that some thousands of peasants have assembled together, and put themselves in march towards Stockholm; but as all the other letters from Sweden, which arrived by the same courier, say not a word of it, this news merits so much the less confirmation, as we do not see that the government has given the least room for discontent to its subjects; and we cannot conceive, that the peasants should have lost so soon the sorrowful remembrance of the unhappy fate, which their turbulent and revolted brethren experienced in 1744.

Paris, May 19. On the Decision of the Affair of Canada, the Sieur Cadet had been condemned to the restitution of a considerable sum, of which he paid a very great part, but found means to persuade the government, that he was unable to discharge the rest. However, he has just been arrested at Belleville, near Paris, whither he had retired, and conducted to the Bastile, on a discovery that he had very lately negotiated Effects for a large sum of money.

Madrid, May 10. 'Tis assured that orders have been dispatched to the Governor of Mexico, to publish a general pardon to all such as were engaged in the late revolt, on Condition that they immediately submit in peace, and pay all lawful obedience to the King.

Dublin, May 19. On Thursday last a trial by Nisi Prius came on in the Court of King's Bench, between Mr. Thomas Bennett, merchant, plaintif, and the captain of a Chester trader, defendant, on an action for a bale of merchandize being washed over the defendant's ship in a storm, in the beginning of October, 1763. The jury brought in a verdict for the plaintif, with costs. The decision of this affair is highly interesting to merchants and captains of ships.

Bristol, May 31. The good fortune of Godfrey Stafford, as mentioned in the papers, proves to be without foundation. The affair was thus: Messieurs Devonshire and Reeve received a letter from London, signed by David Barclay and Sons, advising them of the death of Godfrey Stafford, Esq; and that his nephew, who was in indigent circumstances in this city, was left a very considerable fortune, desiring them at the same time to remove him from his obscurity, and supply him with what he might have occasion for. This letter was nicely counterfeited, and, upon finding him, every circumstance corresponded so well, that it admitted not the least doubt of its reality. He was therefore furnished with upwards of forty pounds in cash by them, and the account of his great advancement in life soon procured him credit in many shops in town; and on Sunday he made off with what he had collected together. Directly after came a letter from Mr. Barclay, declaring his ignorance of the whole matter. Search has been made after this impostor, who for many years has been nothing more than a common sailor, but without success.

May 27. According to letters from Toulon, the island of Corsica was whispered to be the object of the naval expedition fitting out there, but whether to act for or against the malecontents was uncertain.

Letters directly from Constantinople, dated the 2d of April, say, that the grand signior had made almost a total change in his ministry; and likewise mention a most dreadful fire which broke out in that city the night before, and had done great damage.

A fire broke out at Upsal in Sweden, the 30th ult. which consumed 97 houses, and several barns, &c.

They write from Paris, that very great dissatisfaction prevails there among the people, on account of the execution of General Lally, who was universally esteemed to be a brave soldier, and an honest Man, and is supposed to have fallen a victim to the court intrigues, to screen the faults of others.

May 29. General Lally, who suffered lately, was born in France, his father was an Irish gentleman, commander of the Irish brigade in the French service, and was very much respected by that Court. The unfortunate Count had a captain's commission made out for him as soon as he was born.

When the great Earl of Essex was Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for Queen Elizabeth, though there was a great plenty of provisions within thirty miles of Dublin, that great city underwent an artificial famine for two years, in which the poor were almost starved; upon which complaint was made to his Lordship, that the pretended scarcity arose from engrossers and forestallers, who used to intercept the cattle that were coming to Dublin by those who then fed the inhabitants at their own exorbitant prices; upon which his Lordship ordered a sharp look out, with a caution to be careful not to bring an honest man before him through mistake. Two of the most notorious were soon caught and brought to his Lordship, who immediately ordered one of them to be hanged at one entrance of the city, and the other at another; upon which the plague of famine was stayed, and there was as great plenty in Dublin the very next day as ever was known.

Extract of a Letter from Ratisbonne, May 19.

"The Elector of Bavaria, and the Archbishop of Saltzbourg, as convocating Princes of the circle of Bavaria, have addressed each a letter to the states, on the subject of the enrolment of the colonists for Russia, which have been raised for so long a time in the Roman empire, and which merit the more serious attention, as the consequences may be fatal to the whole Germanick body. The depopulation of the country, and the circumstances resulting from it, have induced those two princes to write to the circles of Franconia and Suabia, exhorting them to oppose in concert this enrolment. They particularly exhort the circle of Bavaria, as the most interested in this affair, to take within its jurisdiction the most precise measures on that subject, by prohibiting the public or private levies of colonists, under the most rigorous punishments, as well to the emissaries as the emigrants; and to cause their resolutions, in that respect, to be published in letters patent to be fixed up, according to custom, in public places; assuring them, that their electoral and serene highnesses will not fail to give them, as convocating princes, all the assistance which they may stand in need of."

We are informed, that the Mercury sloop sailed a few days since with some very important dispatches to Lord Clive at Bengal. It is said, that amongst these dispatches there is an order for Lord Clive's staying some time longer in India, in order to establish the company's affairs upon a solid footing. Also, that there is a confirmation of Lord Clive's suspension; first, of certain members of the council at Bengal, for having endeavoured to extort 200,000 l. for themselves from the Nabob, exclusive of 300,000 l. he had before paid them on the company's account; secondly, a confirmation of the suspension of four captains of company's ships, for having sent, by certain ships, large quantities of military stores for the Madeiras, where, when these captains arrived, they took these stores on board their own ships, and carried them to India, and there sold them to the enemies of Great-Britain. And we are further informed, that in these dispatches is an answer to a certain Nabob, who lately sent the directors a handsome letter in the Malabar language, inclosed in a superb gold box, finely ornamented, requesting their protection; and that he might be permitted to build a fort for his defence, within the company's territories, in case he should be hereafter attacked by the great Mogul, or by any other powers, for his adherence to the interest of Great-Britain.

BURLINGTON (New-Jersey) August 4.

At a Court of Oyer and Terminer, held at Burlington, on Wednesday, the Thirtieth Day of July last, came on the Trial of James Annin, aged 54 Years, and James M'Kinzy, aged 19 Years, on an Indictment for the Murder of two Indian Women, named Hannah and Catherine, who had long resided in the Neighbourhood of the Place where the Murder was committed. It appeared by their own Examinations, and by the Testimony of credible Witnesses, that they had been on the Western Frontiers of Pennsylvania and Virginia, but that their first Acquaintance began at Philadelphia; that they came to Moore's Town, in the County of Burlington, on Thursday, the 26th of June last, about Noon, and begged for Charity, and obtained Relief: That while they were eating their Dinners, the two Indians who were murdered, came to the Place where they were, and that the youngest of the Men gave them abusive Language: That the Indians went off, and rested in a Wood, near the Side of the Road: That the one of them was possessed of a clean Shift, and the other of a Piece of new Linen, which they had that Day got: That about 2 o'Clock on the same Day, James Annin sold the Shift, and James M'Kinzy the Piece of new Linen, and a Blanket, about two Miles from Moore's Town.

That they were parted by Accident, and that many People had seen the Indians lying in View of the Road, and supposed them to be asleep, till Sunday, the 29th of June, when two Persons perceived a Stench, and on going near the Bodies, found they were dead; whereupon the Coroner was called, whose Inquest found them to be murdered by Persons unknown. On this Alarm the two Criminals were suspected, and pursued. James Annin was apprehended, and committed to the Goal at Burlington, and the other advertised from the Description given by Annin, and in a few Days taken up by Order of the Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, and sent to Burlington. The Examinations of the Prisoners, taken before they had an Opportunity of seeing each other, were read, and by each Examination it appeared, that they went to the Indians with Intent to ravish them, if they should refuse their Offers; each acknowledged that he was present at the Murder, but charged the giving the Stroke on the other, and acknowledged also the taking the Goods; in this they persisted at the Bar. The Jury soon found them guilty, and they received Sentence of Death.

On Friday Noon they were hanged at the Gallows; they continued in denying the Fact, and charging it on each other. The Elder declared, he thought it a Duty to extirpate the Heathen, and just before they were turned off, M'Kinzy, the younger of the Men, acknowledged, that one of the Indians, on receiving the Blow from Annin, struggled violently, and that he, to put her out of Pain, sunk the Hatchet in her Head, but that they were both knocked down by Annin. The youngest of the Squaws was near the Time of Delivery, and had Marks of shocking Treatment, which the most savage Nations on Earth could not have surpassed.

A few of the principal Indians of Jersey, were desired to attend the Trial and Execution, which they did, and behaved with remarkable Sobriety.

New-York, June 14, 1766.

Meſſieurs DAVID HALL, and WILLIAM SELLERS,

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING lately ſeen an Advertiſement in your Paper, publiſhed by Mr. Daniel Offley, which not only aims at diſcrediting certain Auchors intended for Sale at Philadelphia, but is alſo deſigned to diſcourage the Purchaſing of them; I think a Regard to myſelf obliges me, in the ſame public Manner, to remove the Objections and Difficulties which he has thrown out, with more Art, perhaps, than Truth on his Side.---I have no Deſign to injure him, or any other Man, in his Buſineſs; but to maintain the deſerved Credit of my Anchors againſt his Miſrepreſentation, is a Piece of Juſtice I owe to the Public, as well as myſelf, and for that Purpoſe beg you will inſert this in your next Paper.

The Author of the Advertiſement remarks, "that if he ſhould "get the Shanks of his Anchors made out of the Loop, direct-"ly from the Pig-Iron, at the Forges, he could afford to ſell "his as low as thoſe he is complaining of, and to as much Ad-"vantage to himſelf as he now does; but, in Juſtice to himſelf "and the Public, he finds it neceſſary to make them of refined "malleable Iron, drawn into ſmall Bars, beſides the Care he "always takes to have them well made;"---and then ſays, "he "will engage that one of his Anchors of 400 Weight, will "hold as much as one of the others of 500 Weight."

To this I would beg Leave to anſwer, that although ſuch of my Anchors as are of about 200 Weight, are made from the Loop, yet I am perſuaded, that every judicious Perſon muſt determine them to be as ſound and ſtrong, as if wrought from two, three or four ſmall Bars, welded together.---The Iron thus prepared in the Loop, may be as well wrought into a large Bar, or Shank, or Fluke of an Anchor, and is in itſelf as pure and ſound, as that wrought into ſmall Bars, and, for an Anchor of ſo ſmall a Size, is equally ſound and ſubſtantial.---This is a Fact, evident from not leſs than ten Years Experience and Trial; in which Time there has occured no Inſtance of any Complaint.----Grift-Mill Spindles, Gudgeons, and Saw-Mill Cranks, I have conſtantly made in this Way; and though the Cranks in particular require as large, or larger Iron, than Anchors of 200 Weight, yet I have never had any Complaint as to them.---With reſpect to thoſe Anchors that I make of a larger Weight, they are manufactured from a Number of Bars, wrought into ſuitable Sizes, in Proportion to that of the Anchor; and I believe any Man, except Mr. Offley, muſt be at a Loſs to conceive, why the Anchors made out of Bars thus prepared from Pigs of one uniform Quality, ſhould not be as good as thoſe made out of the common Run of Bar-Iron, which may be, and often are, manufactured not from the ſame Pigs, but from a Mixture of different Kinds, ſome of which muſt be of an inferior Quality.-----I hope it will be no Impeachment of Mr. Offley's Integrity, to ſuppoſe that it is poſſible other People may be led by Principles of Juſtice, as well as he; and that they may be as far removed from any Deſign to impoſe upon, or defraud the Public. And ſhould I aſſert, as he does, that I take Care to have my Anchors well made, out of fine malleable Iron, the World, perhaps, would have as much Reaſon to believe my Aſſertion as his---but not reſting upon any Aſſertion of my own, I rather chooſe to appeal to Experience, as a more ſatisfactory Voucher to the Public.-----Certain it is, that my Iron has gained a high Reputation for its Purity, both in England and America; and the Maker of my Anchors, if I am rightly informed, was much earlier in the Buſineſs than Mr. Offley, and may reaſonably be ſuppoſed to underſtand it as well.---My Works (beſides ſupplying New-York) has furniſhed Anchors for Sale, at Boſton, New-Hampſhire, Bermuda, South-Carolina, Virginia, and Jamaica, from whence I have had no Complaint, but, on the contrary, have, as well as many others, heard much of their Goodneſs and ſuperior Excellency.---Several Parcels have alſo, for ſome Years paſt, been ſhipped to Philadelphia, and ſold by Mr. Richard Smith, and Meſſieurs Puſey and Gibbons, Merchants there; and whether the Credit of thoſe Anchors, as far as they have been concerned with them, has, or has not been well ſupported, thoſe Gentlemen can, and upon Enquiry, I doubt not, will declare: Beſides, as the Maker of my Anchors is concerned in Intereſt with me, and we have, ever ſince our ſetting up the Buſineſs, made a Practice of warranting them for a Year and a Day, and in caſe they fail, then to ſupply others; it cannot eaſily be imagined that he would adopt and purſue a Method of manufacturing them, that would expoſe himſelf to the continual Danger of having them returned on his Hands; neither will Mr. Offley's Reſolution not to mend any of thoſe Anchors, if they ſhould fail, I hope, be any Diſcouragement to the Sale of them, eſpecially when I give this public Aſſurance, that in caſe of any ſuch Accident, my Friend in Philadelphia has Orders, upon the Return of the Anchor ſo failing, or ſuch Part of it as remains, to ſupply another in its Stead: So that Mr. Offley may not only be ſaved the Trouble of mending them, but deprived of the Pleaſure of refuſing it.

WILLIAM HAWXHURST.

N. B. At Sterling, about Forty Miles from New-York, in Addition to the Works before carried on, there are lately conſtructed, one Finery, one Chafery, and one great Hammer, for making Anchor Iron; alſo two more Fires for making of Anchors, which go by Water;----a great Eaſe to the Anchor Smith, as he is not obliged to tread the Bellows; where great Encouragement will be given to Finers, Chafers, Anchor Smiths, and Sledgemen, by Abel Noble at Sterling, or William Hawxhurſt, in New-York.

From the LONDON MAGAZINE for April, 1766.
To the AUTHOR, &c.

SIR,

IT muſt give pleaſure to every good Engliſhman to be informed, that we are now come to a cloſe of the expences of the late war; and that at length a final and equal ſettlement has been made of all the German demands. In the votes of the twenty-ſixth paſt, the reader will find the grants of 106,043,1381. and of 50,0001. which are the remaining ballances of that account: And the adminiſtration, by propoſing the reſolutions in the form in which they now ſtand, has very judiciouſly given to the public the ſatisfaction of knowing that thoſe two ſums are the laſt of thoſe accounts, and at the ſame time has taken the proper precautions againſt any attempt to open them again.

Every one, who compared the expences of former wars with thoſe of the late, muſt have been convinced, that one half of the millions allotted to the German war, could not have been fairly employed in any real ſervice. But while the war went on ſucceſsfully every where elſe, and the nation was juſtly elated with the conqueſts made in every other part of the globe, our German friends took advantage of the general joy, and were making their market of us. That great eaſineſs of parliament, in admitting the enormous eſtimates for this eſtabliſhment, and the facility which our German ſubſidiaries found in getting payment of their demands for each preceding year, encouraged them to venture upon ſtill greater exceſſes in the next.

But what muſt be the aſtoniſhment and indignation of every friend of his country, when he comes to find that, over and above many millions which parliament had annually voted for that ſervice, there remained an infinite number of claims, which our friends had kept for us ſtill in arrear, to the amount of the moſt amazing ſum of ſeven millions and one hundred thouſand pounds, beſides another claim of the Landgrave's, for a reaſonable ſuccour of 1,800,000l.

The tender regard which his preſent Majeſty has ever expreſſed for the welfare of his people, would not permit him to ſuffer ſo heavy a charge to be made upon them, without a fair and juſt examination of the ſeveral accounts, upon which theſe demands were founded. A commiſſion was accordingly appointed for this purpoſe, and the gentlemen entruſted with it, with great application and exactneſs, have gone through all theſe numerous accounts.

At length, upon a fair and impartial liquidation of the whole, it appears that, of 7,100,000 l. demanded, 1,100,000 l. were really due; and of 1,800,000 l. demanded, in virtue of a treaty, by the Landgrave of Heſſe, as a reaſonable ſuccour for damages alledged, the damage proved was 150,000 l. So that for ſervices really performed, to the juſt amount of 1,250,000 l. this nation ſtood charged with demands to the amount of 8,900,000 l.

Theſe demands of our German ſubſidiaries would have been debts if the war had gone on: And the money muſt have been paid; becauſe they would then have told us, that their troops ſhould not march till they were allowed. This had actually been the caſe in former campaigns; inſomuch, that the late Mr. Legge, for two years ſucceſſively, declared, as the only apology which could be made for their exorbitance, that the operations of the war muſt have been ſtopped, if the demands then made had not been complied with.

The reader will not wonder at the enormity of the expence attending the war in this country, when he ſees this experimental proof of the diſadvantages under which it was carried on.

The merit of the gentlemen charged with this commiſſion, who, with ſo great patience and application, ſo great ability and judgment, and ſo great juſtice and integrity, have gone through the examination of all theſe accounts, and thereby ſaved ſo much to the public, will not, it is hoped, be overlooked. In the courſe of theſe examinations, they have drawn out, and ſtated to the treaſury, more than five hundred ſeparate reports. In many of theſe, they appear to have been of different opinions from each other; and each of the three has, in his turn, differed in his judgment from the other two, and for the honour of the nation, and in ſuch a manner as to prove the utmoſt fairneſs and candour, and to place their proceedings above all ſuſpicion of combination or colluſion among themſelves. It would be a want of juſtice not to add, that all the three are in a manner unknown to, and that no one of them has the leaſt knowledge or apprehenſion of the writer of this letter.

But it is to his Majeſty himſelf that we owe our firſt and principal acknowledgments; who, from his own innate love of juſtice, and who, from that equal and unbiaſſed regard to all his ſubjects, which is only to be found in great minds, was graciouſly pleaſed, at the firſt appointment of this commiſſion, to ſubject his own electoral demands, and thoſe of his electoral ſubjects, to the ſame ſtrict and impartial diſcuſſion with thoſe of all the other claimants. If that had not been done, all the ends of the commiſſion, and all the labours of the commiſſioners, had been loſt; but, fortified with ſo great an example of diſintereſted magnanimity, they were thereby enabled to look every other German claimant in the face, and to repel every undue attempt with this moſt unanſwerable reply; That his Majeſty's own inſtructions to them were, that juſtice ſhould be done to every German court; but that favour ſhould be ſhewn to none.---Such is the nation's happineſs, in having a native King to rule over it!

I am, &c. A. B.

AN Order from the L--ds of the Ad-----ty in England, has been circulated in the Weſt-India Iſlands, forbidding the Officers of the Cuſtoms from obſtructing Veſſels with Money on board, from purchaſing Engliſh or American Goods in any of the Ports belonging to his Majeſty; ſo that a free Trade for ready Money is already in a Manner declared.

Signior Giomini, a Native of Corſica, having acquired a large Fortune in the Eaſt-Indies, has bequeathed a conſiderable Part of it for the Defence of Liberty; and to his Heir, who inherits the reſt, he has given it in Charge to be firm in the Patriot Intereſt, but if at length the Iſland ſhould fall under the Yoke of the Genoeſe, he is then to leave it, and retire to ſome free Country, where the Bleſſings of Liberty are the Portion of the Inhabitants.

Extract of a Letter from Banda, the Capital of the Molucca Iſlands, June 10, 1765, being a further Account of the Eruption of the Volcanos in the Iſland.

"The Quantity of Cinders caſt up from the Mountain, with the burning Lava, which ran down its Sides to the Diſtance of upwards of two-thirds of it, deſtroying all the Houſes and trees in its Paſſage, which fell with a horrible Noiſe, filled every Soul with Terror on the 29th. To theſe were added, the perpetual Rumblings heard in the Body of the Mountain, and the ſulphureous Vapours iſſuing from all Parts, which rendered the Air quite inſupportable. Report magnifying theſe Objects, added to our Conſternation. Tho' it had not appeared that any Stones had been found above half Way down the Mountain, yet it was pretended, that ſeveral had been picked up in different Parts of the Iſle. Indeed a Dutch Soldier, on the 1ſt, preſented the Governor with a Piece of very hot Matter, which he had found near the Fort. On examining this Piece, it was found to conſiſt of pure Sulphur. The Stench of Sulphur had been frequently very ſtrong in the Iſland, but never continued long. The Fire alſo of the lower Volcano laſted only 24 Hours, the Collection of Stones thrown out, having extinguiſhed it, and converted it into a thick Smoke, till the 3d of this Month. But this Circumſtance occaſioned the greater Alarms, becauſe the Vapours thickened at the two upper Volcanos, and the Exploſion of burning Matter became more frequent, and much more terrible than ever. The Ground, to the Extent of the Valley, was inacceſſible, on Account of the Heat. The Trees, late ſo beautiful, were partly burnt, and partly overturned, for above Half-way down the Mountain; and the Stones which fell from the Top being ſtopped by the Trees, that had been overturned, ſet them on Fire, which cauſed a very terrible Conflagration. It was in this Situation which threatened further Calamities, that the Government ordered the Inhabitants to provide themſelves with Water. The Officers appointed to extinguiſh ſuch Fires as might happen, received, in particular, the moſt preciſe Orders on that Head. Theſe made the deeper Impreſſion on Peoples Minds, as a Quantity of burning Matter had fallen in the Negory, and ſeveral Pieces of Sulphur, yet quite hot, had been picked up, on the 3d, near the Clove Magazine.

"The 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th, no favourable Change was ſeen. On the contrary, every body thought they perceived the Volcanos grow wider, the Flames thicker, and the Eruption of burning Matter increaſe.

"On the 15th nothing yet to quiet us; the ſubterraneous Noiſe, with the Quantity of burning Matter, Thickneſs of the Flames, Violence of the Report, &c. all increaſed.

"On the 4th of the preſent Month, every Thing in the ſame melancholy Situation. The ſubterraneous Noiſe ſtill equally terrible, and the fiery Matter iſſuing from the Mouth of the Volcanos in the ſame Quantity, and with the ſame Velocity.

"This ſorrowful Event depreſſes us the more, as we were ſcarce recovered from the Conſternation, which the Shock of an Earthquake on the 12th of Sept. 1763, had ſpread over the Iſle."

WILLIAMSBURG, July 18.

Laſt week, through the exceſſive heat of the weather, a man while at work upon a houſe in the town of Portſmouth, fainted and died ſoon after. A Negroe of Mr. Tatem's in Norfolk county, dropt down in the corn field, and expired, and two Negroes in the borough of Norfolk, one belonging to Doctor Campbell, and the other to the Tan-work there, died likewiſe. The thermometer at a houſe in this city, about the time, although hanging in a cool place, quite from the ſun, was at 94 degrees.

July 25. The Squirrel man of war, of 20 guns, Captain Smith, is arrived in Hampton road, from Halifax, to relieve the Rainbow, Captain Stirling, who ſails for England in a few days.

ANNAPOLIS, July 24.

We have further melancholy Accounts of the Damage done by the heavy Rains the Beginning of this Month, particularly to the Mills and Mill-Dams, many of them being thereby deſtroyed, and entirely carried away; out of 30 Mills neareſt to Frederick-Town, in Cæcil County, we are told, only Four are left ſtanding.

On the 4th Inſtant, in the Morning, the Dam of Cheſter Mill, in Queen-Anne's county, began to give Way, and was ſoon broke down; that valuable Mill, together with a great Number of Bags of Grain, were ſoon carried away, the Mill-Stones, by the Rapidity of the Water, being waſhed away above 50 Yards. The Damage which Col. Hopper has thereby ſuſtained, is ſuppoſed to be not leſs than Twelve Hundred Pounds.

July 31. This Day, at the Bar of the Provincial Court, Henry Gregory, Blackſmith, receved Sentence of Death, for Burglary and Felony: As did alſo Peter Beech, for Felony.

Friday laſt Mr. Alexander M'Farland, of St. Mary's County, was found drowned in Patowmack, in about two Feet Water: It is ſuppoſed he went in to Waſh, and was taken in a Fit, to which he was very ſubject, which occaſioned his drowning.

MR. GARNER, from his approved Conduct in the teaching of Youth, having had many Solicitations to open an Academy, wherein Adults, as well as Children, may have Inſtruction in the liberal Arts, has, agreeable thereto, taken a commodious Houſe in Second-ſtreet, lately occupied by the Widow Graydon, and commonly known by the Name of the Slate Houſe: The Houſe is very extenſive, the Rooms very elegant, and ſo well adapted to the Deſign of carrying polite Literature into Execution, as to admit of many Boarders, without interrupting each other in their private Studies. There is a large Yard, fit for the Relaxation of Youth after School Hours, well incloſed, and probably more agreeable (at leaſt more ſalutary) than the Liberty of the Streets, where Vice is only too often ſo predominant, as to render the Care of the Parent or Guardian, and Vigilance of the Teacher, both abortive. To render the Utility of this Undertaking the more perſpicuous, ſome of the Gentlemen who are Encouragers thereof, are pleaſed to become Inſpectors; if agreeable to them, their Names will be publiſhed. Private Examinations in Latin, Engliſh, &c. will be held every Week, and public Examinations once a Quarter. Notice will be given in this Paper of the particular Days. Parents, Guardians and others, may attend on public Examinations; but on private Examinations none are to be admitted but Inſpectors. As the Houſe is very extenſive, Mr. Garner will accept of one or two Gentlemen to board with him.

N. B. A Perſon well verſed in the Languages, of moral Behaviour, and unexceptionable Character (if a ſingle Man) will meet with due Encouragement.

Their Non-Compliance with their Agreement, is the Reaſon why I am obliged to take this diſagreeable Method of advertiſing, which I am aſhamed to do, but thoſe who are ſo long indebted to me, may be much more ſo, as every thinking Perſon may judge that I cannot travel without Money. TO be SOLD by JAMES WEBB, near Lancaſter, a Quantity of GOOD MALT.

By the Ship Grace, Captain Chambers, arrived at New-York from Briſtol, we have the following Advices.

CADIZ, May 6.

A PACKET Boat is arrived here with letters from the Spaniſh Colonies in America, by which we learn, that all was in the greateſt tranquility there, which proves the falſity of the reports, that ſome ill-intentioned perſons have affected to propagate on this ſubject.

Berlin, May 24. On the twenty-firſt, twenty-ſecond, and twenty-third inſtant, the King of Pruſſia reviewed, in the plain of Templehoff, about an Engliſh mile diſtant from hence, a body of 25000 men. Each day they performed different evolutions and manœuvres; and his Pruſſian Majeſty, after the reviews were over, was pleaſed to expreſs to the general officers his intire ſatisfaction, as well with the noble appearance the troops made, as with the dexterity with which they went through their exerciſe.

LONDON.

May 29. Letters from Peterſburgh adviſe, that the Empreſs, attended by a great number of nobility, went lately to ſee the carpet fabric there, and found it not in the leaſt inferior to that of Paris; with which her imperial Majeſty was much pleaſed, and ordered an handſome donation to be given to the workmen.

Amongſt other complaints ſent over againſt a certain Britiſh governor abroad, he has been accuſed of having diſſolved more general aſſemblies in three years, than had ever been done by any of his predeceſſors in ten.

Craſter Greathead, judge of the vice-admiralty court of the iſland of St. Chriſtophers, is appointed chief juſtice of that iſland.

From Dumfermlin we are told, that about eight days ago, as ſome labourers were digging a piece of ground, on the ſpot where the eaſt part of the church ſtood, they diſcovered a human body entire, which appeared to be a female. It was encloſed in a ſtone coffin. From various circumſtances, it is believed to be the body of Queen Margaret, wife to Malcolm Kenmore, who was buried at Dumfermalin, and who afterwards was cannonized, and known by the name of St. Margaret. This Margaret was grand-daughter of Edmond Ironſide, King of England. After the battle of Haſtings, ſhe, with her brother and ſiſter, ſecretly retired from the kingdom, with a view of going to the continent; but by the tempeſtuous weather was forced on the coaſt of Scotland. They were kindly received by King Malcolm, then reſiding in Dumfermlin, who, on account of the many virtues of Margaret, ſome time after married her.

May 31. By letters from Naples we are told, that the ſame Barbary corſair which made a deſcent on the Pope's territory, had landed a number of men on their coaſt, plundered the canton, and carried off with them eight or nine perſons, the reſt having ſaved themſelves by flight.

It is ſaid the French have begun their old practices at Newfoundland, of running down ſuch Engliſh veſſels in the night, as are too weak to reſiſt their violence: Some ſloops, belonging to Marblehead and Boſton, have been lately ſerved in this manner.

According to letters from Toulon, the French continue ſtill working with the greateſt diligence upon the fortifications of that city, and the fort of La Malgue, in order to put thoſe places in a proper ſtate of defence, but againſt what power theſe letters do not ſay. The regiment of the Iſle of France is gone to Antibes, for the ſame purpoſe; and the inhabitants of the city of Lyon have obtained permiſſion from his Majeſty to repair their rampart on the ſide towards the general hoſpital.

The ſuit of the regiment of Cambreſis, in the French King's ſervice, who claimed a debt of 800,000 livres from their India company, was decided on the 18th at Paris, by the great chamber, who condemned the company to pay the ſaid ſum, in five different payments, together with an intereſt of four per cent.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia has publiſhed an advertiſement, in anſwer to the accounts lately inſerted in the foreign papers, of the treatment of ſuch coloniſts as go to ſettle on the Wolga, wherein ſhe aſſerts, that the greateſt care is taken for their protection and preſervation, and that the country in which they are invited to ſettle, is a land of much wholeſomeneſs and fertility.

It is ſaid, that ſince his Majeſty gave his royal aſſent to the bill for the greater encouragement of the ſilk manufacture, there has not been one ſingle loom unemployed in Spitalfields.

Great preparations are making in Spitalfields for the celebration of his Majeſty's birth-day next Wedneſday, ſeveral of the maſter weavers having ordered public houſes to be opened, for the entertainment of their journeymen on that day.

From the expreſſions that lately fell from a certain perſonage, on a public occaſion, as reaſons for his reſignation, it is apprehended that the great commoner will ſoon be recalled into ſome department of the government.

June 3. The wiſdom in repealing the Stamp-Act is as evident to the meaneſt capacity, if properly conſidered, as that two and two are equal to four; the good conſequences whereof are; commerce revives, the manufactures and mechanics, in their numberleſs branches, are again following their honeſt occupations; and numbers of others, who were languiſhing for the common neceſſaries of life, thro' want of employment, are thereby made uſeful to ſociety. The ſtagnation it would have cauſed in commerce and trade, and the train of evils that would have been conſequent on it, cannot be fully deſcribed, as no perſon could have known where, when and how it would have ended. Imagination cannot conceive the horrors of ſuch a ſcene! Happy for this nation then, and her colonies, this ſcene of miſery has not been ſuffered to make its appearance.

They write from Gieſſen, that ſeveral of the Princes of the Empire had given ſtrict orders, that none of their ſubjects ſhould withdraw themſelves from their native country, without a ſpecial permiſſion from their reſpective Sovereigns.

We are informed, that the great cauſe which has been ſeveral years depending, between the city of London and the Diſſenters, relating to their refuſal to ſerve the office of ſheriff, will not be determined till next ſeſſions of parliament.

June 5. It was yeſterday thought by many, that the parliament would ſit for a fortnight longer; but it is this day fully expected that his Majeſty will put an end to the preſent ſeſſion to-morrow.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Earl of Briſtol is appointed ambaſſador to the court of Spain, in the room of the Earl of Rochfort, who is coming home.

It is reported, that orders are ſent to Plymouth, to get ready for ſea what ſhips are in that harbour fit for ſervice.

The Hague gazette, of the 30th of May laſt, under the article London, ſays, that an expreſs has arrived here, from the Earl of Hertford, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, with diſpatches, containing a diſcovery of a project dangerous to the ſtate, formed in the northern part of that kingdom.

We are informed that Palliſer has received inſtructions to erect a court of Admiralty, on his arrival at St. John's Newfoundland, for the trial of all prizes brought in there, from whoſe judgment there is to be no appeal.

By a veſſel arrived at New-Providence from the Havannah, there was advice, that the Spaniſh troops and garriſon had mutinied on the arrival of the new governor, and inſiſted on all arrears of pay and proviſions being cleared off, which having been complied with, they returned to their duty.

Letters from Hamburgh of the 18th of laſt month adviſe, that General Paoli's troops have lately had ſeveral ſkirmiſhes with thoſe of the Marquis de Marbeuf's, in which the former had hitherto the better; that the Genoeſe were preparing with diligence to ſend reinforcements of men and ammunition to Corſica; and that the fate of that iſland ſeemed now to be at a criſis.

They write from Hamburgh, that the merchants there are very uneaſy on the account of the reſolution taken by the King of Pruſſia, for raiſing the duties upon all wines imported into his dominions from that city, as ſuppoſing it will be a great blow to their commerce.

It is remarkable, that on his Majeſty's birth-day there was not one ſingle article of French manufacture to be ſeen in the magnificent dreſſes with which the nobility appeared at court.

Amongſt the nobility that appeared yeſterday at court, to pay their compliments to his Majeſty, his Grace the Duke of Portland, the Counteſs of Northumberland, and Lady Clive, made the moſt brilliant appearance.

The bill for the American free ports lies ready for the Royal aſſent.

They write from Leghorn, that orders have been iſſued at Conſtantinople, for levying an extraordinary tribute throughout all the iſles of the Mediterranean, Adriatic, Archipelago, and the Levant, towards carrying on the war with vigour againſt the malecontents of Georgia.

It is thought, that one of Count Lally's principal crimes was, being immenſely rich, as he died worth Two Millions Sterling, which the French government have ſeized for their own uſe. A great number of their nobility, diguſted at his unfortunate exit, have retired from court.

We are told, that ſome buſineſs of great importance is negociating at Berlin; for in the defenſive treaty concluded between Great-Britain and the King of Pruſſia, before the late war, the contracting parties agreed, that, in caſe they were obliged to take arms, they would neither of them make peace without the other's conſent. This treaty, it is notorious, was broken without ceremony by the Engliſh. Upon which the King of Pruſſia ſays, that, by the law of nations, he is intitled to part of our conqueſts in America; for when two Princes make war in alliance, the conqueſts from the common enemy, by which party ſoever acquired, become the property of both, juſt as the loſs or gain of two perſons in commerce. Accordingly the King of Pruſſia repreſented to the laſt Miniſtry that, while he gained nothing but blows, we had no right to run away with all the profit made by the common war, and therefore he ſolemnly demanded ſome part of our conqueſts, either Dominica, Tobago, or others; or elſe, as Hanover lies at his elbow, if England does not do him juſtice, he will do juſtice to himſelf. The conſequence of this declaration was, the late Miniſtry moved out, and the preſent Miniſtry moved in. As Mr. PITT reſigned becauſe the treaty with the King of Pruſſia was broken, it was thought that, by bringing him in again, we ſhould be able to make peace with the Pruſſian Monarch, and, for a ſum of money, induce him to relinquiſh his pretenſions to part of our conqueſts; but whether this ſcheme will ſucceed or not, does not yet appear, and is now upon the eve of determination. Poſſibly, if the Earl T----e and Mr. Pitt were to accept, the King of Pruſſia would, in compliment to them, relinquiſh all pretenſions in the Weſt-Indies, as they ſeem to have been made more in order to diſconcert the meaſures of L. B---, than out of intention of detriment to Britain. But, if we may judge from appearances, the Miniſtry are afraid to lay the Pruſſian demands before the Parliament. We ſee that one ſpirited nobleman has reſigned; and as, from his office of the northern department, all thoſe negociations muſt have paſſed through his hands, he has, in all probability, reſigned, becauſe he would not venture to ſign his name to the Pruſſian articles of accommodation. The Great Commoner, foreſeeing the ſtorm, has retired to Bath, that he may not again be accuſed of continental connections; and others of the Miniſtry, it is ſaid, ſtand upon the tip-toe of reſignation.

This Day the Directors of the Hon. Eaſt India Company took up 24 Ships for the Service of the current Year.

A Letter from Batavia of the twenty-ſecond of October, 1765, gives the following ſummary of the Dutch ſucceſſes in the iſle of Ceylon. "During the laſt campaign, which was opened about the middle of January, nine battles were fought, in which the enemy were totally defeated. As ſoon as the Dutch had clambered the mountains, and taken the fortreſſes that defended them, the reſidence of Candy was immediately reduced, the King driven to the moſt remote mountains of the kingdom of Oeva, towards Batticalo, and the royal family obliged to fly from Mandamanoere, a caſtle of the kingdom of Matale: Thus the pride of the court of Candy has been humbled, the blood of the Dutch that has been ſhed there avenged, and the honour of their company vindicated, and extended over all the weſtern parts of the Indies. But ſcarce was the brave Baron Van-Eck, their Governor, returned to Colombe, where he died after ten days illneſs.

A courier has been diſpatched to Madrid, with diſpatches for the earl of Rochfort, directing his excellency, among other things, to communicate to the miniſters of his catholic majeſty the regulations which have been made by the miniſtry and parliament of Great-Britain, for the eſtabliſhment of ſeveral free ports at Jamaica, Dominica, &c. in order that the court of Madrid may give advice thereof to the governors of the Spaniſh ſettlements in America, for the mutual benefit of the commerce of the ſubjects of the two powers.

BRISTOL, June 7. Friday laſt was committed to Shepton-Mallet goal, charged on the coroner's inqueſt with the wilful murder of one of his children Saturday ſe'nnight, Mr. Biggs, a farmer, who lived at Pagley Farm, in the pariſh of Wellow, near Bath. We are informed that he went to bed the night before, very much in liquor; when he roſe in the morning, he told his wife, He had been dreaming about the Devil, and that the young imps of hell had tormented him ſo much, that he could not ſleep; as ſoon as he had ſpoke this, he took up one of his children by the legs, and daſhed his brains out againſt the wall; and would have murdered the others, had not his wife ran out of the houſe in her ſhift, and took them with her. After he had committed the murder, he went out of the houſe, and ran into a pool of water that was near. Some of the neighbours being alarmed with the cry of murder, went and aſked him what he was about? He ſaid, he could not tell, but ſhould be glad if they would get a gun and ſhoot him. He was immediately taken into cuſtody.

SAVANNAH (in Georgia) July 2.

The Commons Houſe of Aſſembly have voted their Thanks to Charles Garth, Eſq; for his important Services in ſoliciting the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, and ordered that the Speaker acquaint him therewith by Letter, deſiring alſo that Gentleman to return the Thanks of the Houſe to the Duke of Grafton, Earl of Shelburne, Marquis of Rockingham, Lords Dartmouth and Cambden, Secretary Conway, Mr. Pitt, Col. Barre, and ſuch others as were active in procuring the Repeal of that Act.

July 9. We learn from Auguſta, that the Creek Indians have gone to War againſt the Choctaws, and ſome of both Nations have been killed. The Chickeſaws, we are told, ſeem inclined to aſſiſt the latter.

CHARLESTOWN, in South-Carolina, July 1.

His Majeſty's Ships and Sloops of War, which have now been about the uſual Period of three Years on the North-American Station, have received Orders to proceed to Great-Britain, and are to be relieved by a Fleet of 36 or 40 Sail.

July 8. In the Tax-Act, the Sum of Seven Thouſand Pounds is granted for procuring from London, a STATUE of the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT, Eſq; to be erected in this Province.

July 15. In the Beginning of May laſt, as one Welch, an Indian Trader, was going from Fort Prince-George to the Sugar-Town, in the Lower-Cherokee Country, with his half-breed Daughter and her Child, they were ſet upon by ſome Northward Indians, who killed and ſcalped Welch and the Child, but the Woman, being on Horſeback, got back to the Fort, though not without being wounded by ſeveral Darts the Enemy threw at her in their Purſuit.

About the ſame Time, one Mr. Boyd, a Trader, from Virginia, with two of his People, named Fields and Bourke, were found murdered near Broad-River, on the Road from the Upper-Cherokee Country to Virginia. Mr. Cameron, the Superintendant's Deputy, who arrived in the Upper Towns May 25th, applied to the Chiefs for a Party to go to the Place where Mr. Boyd's Horſes were found, in order to ſearch for and bury his Bones; they readily granted his Requeſt, but the many Tracks of the Enemy obliged the Party to return. The Friends of thoſe Indians who were aſſaſſinated laſt Year in Virginia, have frequently dropt Threatenings of Revenge againſt the Virginians in general on that Account, and though the Cherokees, to a Man, firmly deny their having any Hand in the Murder of Mr. Boyd and the other two, yet there are thoſe who ſtrongly ſuſpect them.

The Legiſlature of Virginia hath granted about Five Thouſand Pounds Sterling, for carrying on a Trade with the Cherokee Indians, for ſeven Years, on Account of that Province. The Goods, it is ſaid, are to be ſold at no more than the Coſt and Charges. Mr. Roſs, a Gentleman appointed factor for the ſaid Trade, arrived lately from Virginia in the Upper-Cherokee Towns; he propoſed to the Indians, that a Store ſhould be erected on Long-Iſland, Holſon, to be fortified with a Stockade, which they would by no Means agree to, as, they ſaid, that was the beſt of their Hunting-Ground, which would be entirely ſpoiled by building a Store there; and that Differences would certainly ariſe between their young Fellows and the white People, if they ſhould ſettle ſo near each other.

They write from Auguſta, that a Body of 200 Creek Indians was gone out againſt the Choctaws. The ſame Letters add, that the Creeks expreſs ſtrong Suſpicions that the Engliſh have ſpirited up the Choctaws to break with them, which, they ſay, is contrary to Treaty, and all the Talks of the Great King, delivered to them by his beloved Men.

We are ſorry to hear, that the Wheat Planters in the Back-Settlements, on the Weſtern Frontiers, who are not an inconſiderable Number, and moſt of whom place their whole Dependance on the raiſing of that Grain, are very great Sufferers this Year, many of them loſing their whole Crop, by the Ruſt.

On the other Hand, thoſe that have planted Hemp, have in general ſucceeded ſo well, that it is certain a very great Quantity will be brought to Market for Exportation, ſo that this Commodity promiſes fair to become another valuable Staple.

Madder has lately been planted, and, it is ſaid, will produce to Advantage. In ſhort, there are few Things that may not be brought to Perfection here, with a little Pains and Induſtry; for it is but a few Years ſince, that ſcarce a good Cabbage, Turnip, Beet, Carrot, or Iriſh Patatoes, could be found in our Markets; but now they are raiſed in ſuch Quantity and Perfection, that none of the two laſt Articles need be imported again.

July 22. Letters from Weſt-Florida expreſs ſome Suſpicions that the Choctaw and Creek Indians, are about to make up their Differences; and that their Union will not be very favourable to the Britiſh Intereſts in that Part of the World.

The Number of Spaniards arrived at New-Orleans did not exceed 100 about the Beginning of laſt Month; and none of the French had left the Place. More Spaniſh Troops were daily expected.

The laſt Accounts from the Cherokee Country inform us, that the Northern Tribes continue their Incurſions againſt the Cherokees, who are extremely deſirous of having a Peace concluded with thoſe reſtleſs Enemies.

Laſt Night Captain John Schermerhorn arrived here from New-York, after a tedious Paſſage of 40 Days, owing to the ſtrong Southerly Winds which we have had for ſeveral Weeks paſt.

July 29. On Thurſday laſt his Majeſty's Sloop Sardine, commanded by Captain Hawker, arrived here from Philadelphia; and we hear ſhe is to be a Station Ship for this Place.

BOSTON, Auguſt 4.

We hear from Newbury-Port, that the Inhabitants of that Town, at a Meeting laſt Week, gave their Repreſentative Inſtructions to uſe his Influence, that the Loſs of the Sufferers in the Town of Boſton be paid out of the public Treaſury.----We alſo hear from Almſbury, that that Town had done the ſame.

We hear that the GENERAL-ASSEMBLY of the Province of New-Hampſhire, in their laſt Seſſion, Reſolved that a Dutiful and Loyal Addreſs be prepared to be preſented to our Moſt Gracious SOVEREIGN, and to both Houſes of Parliament, upon the happy Repeal of the Stamp Act, which was done accordingly.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 14.

On the Ninth of this Month died the Reverend Mr. ROBERT CROSS, one of the Preſbyterian Miniſters in this City. He ſuſtained the miniſterial Character with conſiderable

Dignity for near Fifty Years in America. The Author of every good and perfect Gift had endowed him with many useful Talents, whereby he was qualified to make a very respectable Figure in any of the Christian Churches, and by which he was distinguished above many of his Cotemporaries. He had the Advantage of an early and a regular Education, whereby he became well acquainted with the classic Authors, and with various Branches of polite Literature. As he was capable of great Improvement, he was sent to the University of Glasgow, where he made a considerable Proficiency in Philosophy, as it was then taught in the Schools, and was justly intitled to the Character of a Gentleman of Learning. As he was blessed with a clear Judgment, and a faithful and retentive Memory, this enabled him to add to his Treasure of useful Knowledge many excellent Portions of sacred Writ, which peculiarly characterized all his public Exhibitions. He was a good Divine, took peculiar Delight in reading the holy Scriptures, was well acquainted with the Doctrines of free Grace, and the Terms of Salvation published in the Gospel. To these Qualifications he added an easy and persuasive Address, a great Love of Decorum, an Air of Dignity and Importance, and a polite genteel Behaviour, which reflected a peculiar Lustre on his other Accomplishments. His Sermons were plain and practical, (enriched with the holy Scriptures) generally describing the Christian Temper, the peculiar Doctrines of the Christian Religion, or the Evidences of Sanctification in the great Duties of an holy Life. He was a Friend to civil and religious Liberty, and lived in Charity and Friendship with all other Denominations. As it was the Will of God that he should out-live his public Usefulness as a Preacher of the Gospel, he submitted with Resignation to the Hand of God, waiting till his Change should come; yet frequently expressing his longing Desires of the Arrival of that glorious Day, which would discharge him from all the Pains and Troubles of his tedious Warfare, and bring him to his Father's House above. For he often suggested to his Friends his Hopes of the divine Favour, through the Merits of our blessed Redeemer, and his Faith and full Assurance of an Inheritance with the Saints in Light.

On Saturday last died, after a short Illness, the Rev. Mr. COLIN CAMPBELL, many Years Missionary at Burlington, in New-Jersey; and on Sunday last he was interred in Burlington Church, his Remains being attended to the Grave by a great Number of People, of different Persuasions, assembled from various Parts of the Country, to testify their Regard to his Memory. A suitable Sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. SMITH, of Philadelphia; who having introduced a short and just Character of the Deceased, in the following Paragraph, a Copy of it was requested to be here inserted, viz.

"Methinks, according to the usual Mode, you now expect "an Application of this Subject, in a long and circumstantial "Account of Him whose Dust we have just consigned to its kin"dred Dust. But I knew my worthy departed Friend so well--- "such was his Abhorrence of the too frequent Prostitutions of "Truth and Justice, in many of our modern Characters of the "Dead---that were he now alive, and to speak for himself, he "would suffer no more to be said of him, but that---He endea"voured to be (what you will all allow he was) a Man of strict "and severe Honesty; faithful in the Discharge of every Trust, "and particularly of his most sacred Trust, as a Minister of the "Gospel of JESUS. He was a Lover of Peace, and rather "willing to bear any tolerable Wrong than ruffle the Serenity of "his own Temper. His Loss to you is great, but to his worthy, "bereaved Wife and Children, irreparable."

Captain Cooper, from Barcelona, on the 24th of July, in Lat. 28: 36, Long. 64: 58, spoke the Brig Charming Peggy, Captain Marshall, from this Port for Antigua, all well; and on the 29th, in Lat. 34: 30, Long. 66, he spoke a Sloop from Dominica for Salem, and a Brig from Cape Fear for Barbados.

Captain Jenkins, from the same Place, but last from Montserrat, informs, that Captain Osborn, from Barcelona for North-Carolina, had put into Gibraltar, to get Provisions, before he could proceed on his Voyage.

Captain Bragg, from Barbados, on the 24th ult. in Lat. 24, Long. 61: 30, spoke the Brig Repeal, Captain Lawrence, belonging to this Port, bound to St. Christophers from North-Carolina, out 15 Days, all well.

Captain Hodge, from Anguilla, on the 30th of last Month, in Lat. 34: 20, Long. 69: 33, spoke a Schooner, Captain Leacraft, for New-York; and a Sloop, Captain Tanner, for Rhode-Island, who both sailed in Company from the Grenades, and had been 11 Days out.

By Captain Eve, from Bermuda, we have Advice, that a Man of War was arrived there from Jamaica, with about 6000 £ Part of the Cash to reimburse the Merchants for the Damage they sustained by the French, some time since, at Turks Island.----He also informs that Capt. Campbell, from St. Eustatia for this Port, put into that Island in Distress, having several of his Planks started, and was very leaky; but that on taking out his Cargoe, he got his Vessel repaired, and would soon be ready to sail for this Place.

The Prohibition of the Exportation of Rice from South-Carolina, was taken off the Fourteenth of last Month.

On Sunday last the Hawke Man of War, Captain Brown, arrived here from New-York.

Arrived from this Port. Captains Greenway, Ashmead, Polegreen, Montgomery, Lockhart, Allen, and Covell, at Barbados.---Captain Budden, at Antigua.---Captain Woods, at Montserrat.---And the Captains Eastwick and Johnson, in South-Carolina.---A Sloop from Wilmington is also arrived at Antigua.

Since our last several Persons have been taken up, and committed to the Goal of this City, on Suspicion of being concerned in the late Robberies.

In the Night of the 6th Instant, the Store of Messieurs Stapler and Smith, in Water-street, was broke open, and robbed of sundry Dry Goods, &c.

The same Night some Rogues found Means to get into the Cellar of Mr. Yeates, at the Three Tuns, in Chestnut-street, and carried off some Jamaica Spirit. They also got into the House of Mr. Reily, Tobacconist, above the Prison; but being disturbed by some of the Family coming down Stairs, they went off without their Booty.

And every Night since almost, Attempts have been made on Houses and Stores in the different Quarters of the Town, though we have not heard that they succeeded in any of them.----The Fellows have been seen in the Streets, and overheard consulting to what Houses they should go.----They were under the Windows of Joseph Turner, Esq; on Sunday Night last, with Design to enter his House, but were frightened away by a Negroe Girl, that happened to be up in the next House.----And on Monday Night they attempted the House of Mrs. Magdalen Devine, in Second-street; they got in the Back Way from Strawberry Alley, and by the Help of a Ladder, it is thought, got up to the first Pair of Stairs Window, which they had almost forced open; but a Board falling down in the Inside, it is supposed frightened them so, imagining they were discovered, that they went off------In the Room they were attempting, there was a very large Quantity of valuable Dry Goods. And one Night the Villains endeavoured to prize the Shutters of five or six Windows of Mr. John Rhea's House, in Market-street, off the Hinges, but without Success.

On Tuesday Night last, about Half an Hour after Eight, Mr. George Gray, of the Lower Ferry, as he was riding home from Town, was attacked by a Man, with a Fusee, on the Road, who demanded his Money, threatening him several times, that if he did not deliver it directly, he was a dead Man, his Piece being cocked, and presented at him. Mr. Gray told him repeatedly he had no Money, and desired him to search him, which he refused, saying he knew him, that he had Money, and asked for his Pocket-book; but was answered, he had none. He then seemed very angry; on which Mr. Gray said, he had a Watch, which he immediately took. After this he said, he must have his Horse, but that he would find him at the Hospital Fence.

Mr. Gray said, perhaps he might meet with more of his Company; and was answered, that if it should so happen, tell them, you have seen John the Barber; and then rode off at a full Gallop.-----The Horse was found fastened to the Fence.-----The Maker's Name of the Watch was JACKSON, London, and had a plaited String, made of Crewel, of four Strands.

We are sorry to acquaint the Public, that the Deaths of some People, who have been carried off since the hot Weather, are said to be owing to their Indiscretion in drinking cold Water while they were warm, notwithstanding the many Cautions that have been given against it, and that several are in a dangerous Way now, from the same Cause. "In such a Situation, the "pouring into the Stomach, immediately after the Water has "been drank, a Wine Glass or two of unmixed Rum, has been "recommended, and which, we have heard, has very lately "proved an effectual Remedy."

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is with the utmoſt Satisfaction, that I have obſerved the Wiſdom and Moderation which have uniformly guided you through the many important Deliberations, in which you have been engaged, during the Courſe of this long and intereſting Seſſion of Parliament. I perſuade Myſelf, that the moſt ſalutary Effects muſt be the natural Reſult of Deliberations conducted upon ſuch Principles.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I thank you for the Supplies which you have ſo chearfully given for the ſeveral Eſtabliſhments, and for the Support of Public Credit: And you may reſt aſſured, that no Oeconomy will be wanting, to render them effectual for the Purpoſes for which they were granted.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The preſent general Diſpoſition of all the Powers of Europe, ſeems to indicate a Continuance of Peace: And it is My earneſt Deſire to preſerve the general Tranquility, by fulfilling, on My Part, all the Engagements I am under by Treaties. And on this Foundation, I may reaſonably hope and expect the ſame ſtrict Performance of thoſe Engagements, which other Powers are under to My Crown.

The many Regulations which you have made, for extending and promoting the Trade and Manufactures of Great-Britain, and for ſettling the mutual Intercourſe of My Kingdoms and Plantations in ſuch a Manner, as to provide for the Improvement of the Colonies, on a Plan of due Subordination to commercial Intereſts of the Mother Country, are the ſtrongeſt Proofs of your equitable and comprehenſive Regard to the Welfare of all My Dominions; an Object truly worthy of a Britiſh Parliament.

It ſhall be My Endeavour, that ſuch Care be taken, as may tend to ſecure and improve the Advantages which may be expected from ſuch wiſe and ſalutary Proviſions.

I have nothing further to recommend to you, than that you will exert your beſt Endeavours in your reſpective Counties, to enforce the Execution of the Laws, and to promote good Manners and good Order among My People; whoſe true and laſting Happineſs ſhall be My conſtant Care, and upon whoſe Affections I ſhall always firmly rely.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command, ſaid;

The expreſſions in your letter of the 21ſt of April, and the offers which you make me, give me the greateſt ſatisfaction, and I receive with pleaſure theſe freſh proofs of that love and obedience which you have always ſhewn to my perſon. PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 21.

A Letter from the Merchants of London, trading to North-America, to the Committee of Merchants in this City, dated the 13*th of June,* 1766.

GENTLEMEN,

"Referring you to our former Letters, of the 28th of February, and 18th of March, both which we hope you have long ſince received, we now incloſe three Acts of Parliament, which obtained the Royal Aſſent the 6th Inſtant, viz.

An Act for indemnifying Perſons who have incurred Penalties in America, on Account of the Stamp-Act.

An Act for repealing certain Duties, and granting others in Lieu thereof, and further regulating ſeveral Branches of the American Trade.

An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Ports in Jamaica and Dominica, for the more free Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Merchandizes.

The firſt will, doubtleſs, give you particular Satisfaction, as compleating the Repeal of the Stamp-Act. The other two we conſider as the Baſis of an extenſive Syſtem of Trade between Great-Britain and her Colonies, framed on liberal Principles of reciprocal Advantage, relieving the Colonies from injudicious Reſtrictions, and ſevere Duties, enlarging old, and opening to them new Channels of Commerce; and by ſecuring to Great-Britain an increaſing Conſumption of her Manufactures, and, of Conſequence, an Extenſion of her Navigation and Revenue.

You muſt be ſenſible, Gentlemen, that from thoſe Sources have been derived the Power, ſo happily exerted by this Country, on many Occaſions, to guard your Religious and Civil Intereſts; we are therefore perſuaded that you will think it juſt and neceſſary to prevent, by every poſſible Means, foreign States from ſharing in the Advantage of your Commerce, and thereby depriving Great-Britain of the Means to afford you future Inſtances of her Parental Protection.

The Conſideration, that every Degree of Intercourſe between the Britiſh Colonies and the manufacturing Countries of Europe, tends to ſtrengthen their Navigation, and increaſe their Manufactures, at the Expence of our own, will, we are ſure, be a ſufficient Motive to engage you heartily to carry into Execution the Clauſe of the Regulation Act, inhibiting that Intercourſe; this may effectually be done, if ſuch Trade is held, by the principal Merchants among you, to be diſhonourable, the Laws of Reputation being ſtronger than any others; and we flatter ourſelves, that your Friends here will not, on any future Occaſion, be made to bluſh by Inſtances of its Violation.

We muſt obſerve that, notwithſtanding the apparent Neceſſity of new commercial Laws, ſuch hath been the perſevering Oppoſition to theſe ſalutary Meaſures, as to occaſion the Loſs of much Time, and to render it impracticable to obtain theſe Trade Acts in a State of full Perfection; for although they are in themſelves very important, and far more than could be expected, yet they are to be conſidered but as the great Out-lines of a Plan to extend the National Commerce.

Amendments will, doubtleſs, be found neceſſary, and muſt be adopted. In the mean time, we perſuade ourſelves they will meet a ready Obedience on your Parts.

It is incumbent on us to mention, the happy Union between the Weſt-Indian and North-American Merchants, which has proved of great Advantage in combating the Oppoſition; it took Place early in the Seſſion; and, for the general Good, we ſincerely wiſh it always to ſubſiſt, in its preſent Cordiality.

The Regulation of Paper Currency is poſtponed, in order to communicate to the Colonies, and take their Opinion upon, a Scheme for a general Paper Currency through America, which has been propoſed to the Adminiſtration.

The Conſideration of permitting you to import Wines, Fruit, and Oil, directly from Spain and Portugal, is alſo poſtponed.

Nothing further remains unredreſſed, which was recommended to us in your Memorial, but the Prohibition you are under from exporting Bar Iron to foreign Countries; a Reſtriction conſidered as beneficial to the Iron Manufactories of theſe Kingdoms, to which, from good Policy, Reaſon and Juſtice, a Preference is due; and we beg Leave to recommend your avoiding hereafter, any Applications which may be conſtrued into the moſt diſtant Means of interfering with the Manufactures of the Mother Country; either by furniſhing her Rivals with raw Materials, or by the public Encouragement of ſimilar Manufactures among yourſelves; no ſmall Strength having ariſen to your Opponents, during the late Struggles, from each of thoſe Topics.

In a Word, the Syſtem of Great-Britain is, to promote a mutual Intereſt, by ſupplying the Colonies with her Manufactures, by encouraging them to raiſe, and receiving from them all raw Materials, and by granting the largeſt Extenſion to every Branch of their Trade, not interfering with her own.

Having now compleated, ſo far as it can be done this Year, the important Buſineſs for which we united in November laſt, we think it incumbent on us to repeat our Senſe of the Obligations the whole commercial Intereſt of Great-Britain and America is under to the preſent Adminiſtration; to whoſe Abilities, Attention and Perſeverance, the Progreſs made, in adjuſting theſe great national Points, muſt be attributed; and, we hope, the good Conſequences of theſe Regulations will tranſmit their Names with Honour to Poſterity."

Extract of a Letter from London, June 11, 1766.

"No Changes have yet taken Place in the Miniſtry, except the Reſignation of the Duke of Grafton.----In the Eaſt-Indies, Lord Clive ſeems to carry all before him. He propoſed, by the laſt Accounts, to ſet out for Europe next December, but it is ſaid the Company have wrote to him to remain there another Year, that he may have full Time to compoſe Matters thoroughly.---- The late Revolution of the Miniſtry in Spain, with the Diſturbances that ſtill remain there, ſeem to ſecure to us the Continuance of their Friendſhip; the Peace of Europe is therefore not likely to be ſoon diſturbed; and in Times of Tranquility, all commercial States muſt flouriſh."

On Thurſday Night laſt died, after a ſhort Illneſs, in the 70th Year of her Age, Mrs. MARY FRANKLIN, the virtuous and amiable Conſort of the late PETER FRANKLIN, Eſq; of this City. She was a Gentlewoman who, from Principles of Chriſtianity, diſcharged the Duties of a long Life with unblemiſhed Integrity; which, added to a ſound Underſtanding, and a happy Diſpoſition, rendered her beloved by all thoſe who had the Pleaſure of her Acquaintance.

On Saturday Night laſt, about Ten o'Clock, Mr. Joſeph Penroſe, of this City, was ſtopt by a Man on the Lower Ferry Road, who he ſaw ſtanding in the Middle of the Highway, leaning upon his Gun, at ſome Diſtance before he got up to him. The Fellow demanded his Money, preſenting his Piece at him; upon which he gave him a Dollar, ſaying it was all the Money he had. He then aſked for his Watch, but was told he had none. He afterwards deſired him to give him his Pocket-Book, which he did; there was no Money in it, except a Shilling Bill; but as it contained ſome Papers of Value, he told him he hoped he would return them, which he promiſed to do. He then deſired him to diſmount, telling him he muſt have his Horſe; upon which he was acquainted with the Buſineſs Mr. Penroſe was on, going down the Country, to inform a Gentlewoman of her Huſband's Death, when the Rogue ſeemed to ſhew ſome Concern, and ſaid he would leave the Horſe at the Sugar-Houſe. Mr. Penroſe deſired he would leave him at Powell's Fence, which he refuſed, being ſworn, as he ſaid. Mr. Penroſe then ſaid, perhaps he ſhould meet with more of his Company; and, in Return, was deſired to tell them, Peter the Barber had been with him. The Horſe and Pocket-Book were found together at the Hoſpital Fence.----Mr. Penroſe, before he got up to the Man who robbed him, paſſed by a Man lying in the Road on his Back, and was met by another Man on Horſeback, who aſked him how he did; whether or not they were Accomplices, he could not ſay, but none of them were to be ſeen when he returned for his Horſe.

And on Tueſday, Dennis Scanlan, a Butcher of this Place, was taken up, on Suſpicion of being one of the Robbers, when Mr. Gray's Watch (mentioned in our laſt) was found upon him. He was carried before the Mayor of the City, and examined, but confeſſed nothing; after which he was ordered to Goal, where he owned to the Goaler, that he robbed both Mr. Gray and Mr. Penroſe, and that he had no Confederates.---The Women of the Houſe where he was found, are likewiſe in Cuſtody.

We therefore, as citizens and freeholders of this metropolis, thinking ourſelves bound to ſtand foremoſt in all national meaſures, have taken the earlieſt opportunity to declare our ſentiments upon this moſt intereſting event, and to entreat that you will never give your aſſent to any money bill of longer duration than three months, until a law paſſes in this kingdom, for a ſeptennial limitation of parliament."

Extract of a Letter from Egremont, in this Province, dated July 30, 1766.

"On Saturday, the 26th of July inſtant, Hermanus Schyler, Sheriff of the County of Albany, and Robert Van Ranſlear, of Cleverack, attended with about 250 of General Gage's Light Infantry, armed with Guns, Swords, Piſtols, one Field Piece, and three Swivels, came in a hoſtile Manner to Nobletown, to the Houſe of Andrew Stalker, which they broke down; from thence they proceeded to the Houſe of William Bever, broke down his Houſe, and robbed him of three Guns, and ſundry other Goods and Tools; from thence they came to the Houſe of Evert Conniekabacker, where they pitched their Camp; from thence said Schyler and others, on Sabbath-Day the 27th, travelled three Miles to the House of Joseph Clarke, and broke it open, and robbed him of all his Books, Arms, Clothes, Provisions, and every Thing they could lay their Hands on; from thence they went to the House of Robert Mecker, and broke down the House, flung out and destroyed, and carried away every thing that was therein; from whence they returned to their Camp; from whence in the Afternoon the said Schyler and others came to the House of Robert Noble, which House and Furniture they entirely destroyed, and set Fire to the Barns, &c. which were consumed; from thence they proceeded to the Houses of said Clarke and Mecker, and carried off all they left in the Morning, then returning to their Camp, they took as Prisoner Thomas Millard, killing and destroying Swine, Fowls, &c. as they returned: On Monday the 28th the said Schyler and others came to the House of Robert Warren, which they broke open and plundered, and rifled of every thing therein, killed four Sheep, three Hogs, one Calf, and abused the Children, &c. thence they proceeded to the House of William Kellog, and a Man who was in the House upon their Approach fled, but was pursued, and had two guns fired at him, but he escaped; they then returned to the House, which they robbed of every thing, and much abused a Child there, killed two Hogs, ten Geese, &c. thence said Schyler and others came to the House of Eb. Smith, of Egremont, and rifled it of every thing valuable, and light to carry away, and then returned to the Camp; and on Tuesday they drew off, threatning they would come again in a few Days, and lay the whole Town in Rubbish, plant three Forts there, and tarry to keep off the Inhabitants.------Thus are the Inhabitants of Nobletown drove away to the neighbouring Towns, as Sheep by Wolves, to Egremont, Sheffield, and Barrington, with their Wives and Families, and are in the most distressed Circumstances, having nothing to support them but the Charity of the People."

August 18. Last Week a Whaling Sloop arrived here from the Streights of Belleisle, by whom we learn, that there has been but small Success in that Fishery this Season, not above 17 Whales having been caught, among the many Vessels which were fitted out for that Purpose:---We also learn, that the Cod Fishery on the Labrador Coast, has been greatly interrupted and broke up by one of his Majesty's Frigates, who pressed one Man out of each Vessel, and obliged them all to leave the Coast, after having taken from some what was found valuable on board, and of others destroying the small Quantity of Fish they had already catched, beating and abusing some of the Skippers for demanding the Reason of this Treatment towards them, from whom they rather expected Encouragement and Protection.----'Tis said the Captain of the Frigate acted in Consequence of Orders from the Commanding Officer on that Station; and that one of his Orders was, "Not to suffer any American Vessel to fish for any other than Whales, in any of the Ports or Coasts of Newfoundland, lying between Point Riche and Cape Bonavista."

NEW-YORK, August 14.

On Sunday Night last, the Mast or Flag Staff, erected on the Common, at the Time of public Rejoicing on his Majesty's Birth Day, for the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, left standing inscribed with the Names of his Majesty, Mr. Pitt, and Liberty, as a Monument of that happy Event, and Gratitude to those by whom it was accomplished, was cut down by some of the Soldiers, belonging to the 28th Regiment, quartered in the Barracks; and as it appeared by several Depositions, to have been done by Way of Insult to the Town, it gave great Uneasiness, and next Day occasioned two Frays between the Town People and the Soldiers, a small Number of each, in which two or three were wounded, and several hurt, by the Soldiers. It appears by many Affidavits, that the Soldiers were intirely the Aggressors: And the People are in general very uneasy that such a Number of armed Men, without any visible Occasion for them, are stationed among us, and suffered to patrol the Streets, as in a Military or conquered Town. The Examinations relating to these Disorders, not being finished, we must refer our Readers to our next, for further Particulars.

August 21. We hear that after the Examination of a great Number of Witnesses, respecting the late Disturbances between some of the Citizens, and a Party of Soldiers, the Corporal and Drum Major of the Regiment, who appeared to be the chief Authors of the Disturbances, were bound over to the Quarter-Session.----------We hear these Differences are likely to have an amicable Conclusion; for that at a Meeting between the Magistrates of the City, and the Officers of the Regiment, in the Presence of the Governor, they declared their Desire of living in Harmony with the Citizens, and said, that upon any Misbehaviour of the Soldiers, under their Command, they should either be tried by a Court-Martial, or delivered up to the civil Authority, as the Magistrates should require----They only desired the Soldiers should not be ill-treated or molested, which was promised on the Part of the Migistrates.

We hear from Dutchess County, that Penderghast has been condemned for High-Treason, and was to suffer Death, in six Weeks---The usual severe Sentence for Treason was pronounced on him.

August 25. Yesterday his Excellency our Governor, with his Lady and Daughter, embarked for Albany, having some Days before been taken Leave of by all the most Respectable in the City.

Governor Carlton, of Quebec, Brigadier Major General for the Northern Departments, who came over in the Packet, proceeded to his Appointment on board Governor Moore's Sloop.

Last Week a Soldier, belonging to the 28th Regiment, was sentenced by a Court-Martial to, and did, receive 500 Lashes for assaulting a Gentleman in the Street, Wednesday Evening last, which is a convincing Proof that the Military are determined to give ample Satisfaction to the Inhabitants for any Insult that may be offered them by the Soldiers, on proper Application to the Commanders of any of the Regiments.

Captain Kelly, from Santa Croix in 18 Days, the 13th Instant, in Lat. 33, 35, Long. 69, 30, spoke with the Charlestown Packet-Boat, from Charlestown, bound for Falmouth, out 6 Days.

Captain Bolderson, about a Month since, in Lat. 37: 38, Long. 37, spoke with Captain Mackey, in a Sloop belonging to Boston, from North-Carolina, bound for Madeira, 25 Days out, all well.

Captain Forbes sailed from Liverpool in Company with two Ships for Virginia.

The Duke of Cumberland Packet, Captain Goodridge, soon after he left this Coast in May last, sprung a Leak, and bore away for the West-Indies, but having the good luck to fall in with a Sloop from New-England bound to the Southward, Capt. Goodridge, to serve the Crown, engaged with the Captain for a certain Sum of Money, as well as to take the Cargo at Market Price, to see him safe to Falmouth, where they both arrived safe, after a Passage of 40 Days from this Port.

Extract of a Letter from London, June 14, 1766.

"Commodore Byron is lately returned from a Voyage round the World, but the Intention and Incidents of the Voyage, are kept very secret; only it is known that they have discovered an Island, near Patagonia, in South-America, the Inhabitants of which are of a gigantic Size, being, in general, about Nine Feet high, and young Children in Proportion. This is no Romance, but real Matter of Fact, and may be depended on."

On the 13th, in Lat. 37: 51, Long. 66, spoke a Ship from Jamaica for London; the same Day spoke a Brig, Captain Brooks, from Cadiz for Virginia, out 40 Days, who informed Capt. Dunn, that Capt. White was to sail two Days after him, for Philadelphia.----And on the 14th, in Lat 38, Long. 67: 30, he spoke a Sloop for Barbados, and a Schooner for Dominica, both from Boston.----Captain Dunn, on his Passage, met with very hard Gales of Wind, in one of which he carried away his Maintopmast, and received other Damage.

Capt. West, from Jamaica, on the 28th ult. in Sight of the East End of that Island, spoke a Brig belonging to Virginia, from Barbados, and a Sloop, Captain Chalmers, in 13 Days from Georgia, both bound to Kingston. And on the 17th Instant, about 85 Leagues S. E. from our Capes, spoke a Sloop, Captain Fritch, from this Place for the Grenades, three Days out.

Arrived at Jamaica. The Captains Brown, and M'Coy, from this Port; Captains Woodhouse and Jauncey, and the Sloop Honduras, from New-York. Also a small Sloop from Maryland, the Master's Name forgot.

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that as James Chapman hath rid Poſt theſe 5 Years paſt, from Philadelphia to Talbot County Court-houſe, in Maryland, and in the latter Part of his riding, hath received very little of his Salary for carrying his Subſcribers News Papers; he is now under a Neceſſity of informing them, that unleſs thoſe indebted to him, as well for other Services, as the Carriage of News and Letters, leading of Horſes, the Care of Caſh, &c. do pay by the laſt of September, they will have no more News carried by him, or his Partner; and all thoſe who neglect to pay him by that Time, may depend on being warranted and ſued, as a Perſon in each County will be impowered for that Purpoſe. Their Non-Compliance with their Agreement, is the Reaſon why I am obliged to take this diſagreeable Method of adverciſing, which I am aſhamed to do, but thoſe who are ſo long indebted to me, may be much more ſo, as every thinking Perſon may judge that I cannot travel without Money.
